CHRIST CHURCH

THE MARKET GATE

In April, 1825, Marquis de LaFayette visited Mobile. His arrival was marked by a parade in his honor, and at every place his carriage stopped, the ladies and young girls exacted kisses of America's famous ally. He remarked that Mobile had the fairest women he had seen in America, and attributed this to the fact that so many were of French descent. The hero was entertained at a grand ball in a hotel on the southwest corner of Royal and St. Michael Streets. A bronze tablet dedicated to Restaurant LaFayette can be seen today a block east of the site of LaFayette's stay in Mobile.
